2016 CST Faculty and Staff Giving Campaign
Frequently Asked Questions

1. Why should I make a gift to CST?
No one knows the college better than you. So when faculty and staff make a gift, it is a vote of confidence in the direction of the college. Faculty and staff giving also inspires Temple alumni to give and corporations and foundations take faculty/staff giving into account when making their own funding decisions. Your participation also positively impacts our national reputation.

2. Will my gift really make a difference?
Every gift, whatever the size, is important. For example, a $2 bi-weekly commitment (via payroll deduction) is $4 a month, about the cost of buying one lunch, which equals a yearly contribution of $52. A weekly gift of $5, again about the cost on one lunch, equals a yearly contribution of $260. Combine your gift with others across the college, and they will make a big impact.

3. How much should I give?
No one can tell you to make a gift or how much to give. Your gift should be what feels comfortable for you. Participation is the number one goal for this campaign. Gifts of $50 or more make you eligible for a special gift (see question #8 for details).

4. How will my gift be used?
You can decide what is most important to you, and 100% of your gift will be used as you direct. The giving form includes a list of college-wide and department-specific funds that support scholarships, undergraduate research, faculty and more.

5. How can I make a gift to the College of Science and Technology?
There are several ways to make a gift:
• Use the enclosed giving form to make a one-time gift by check or credit card
• Make a gift online by going to giving.temple.edu/CSTfacultystaff
• Use the enclosed giving form to sign up for payroll deduction

6. How does payroll deduction work?
When you enroll in payroll deduction, your gift will be automatically deducted from your paycheck for the exact amount you determine. (If paid biweekly, deduction is taken from first paycheck of month.)

7. I already made a gift to CST this year. Do I have to make another to participate in this campaign?
No. Any contribution made to the college during the current fiscal year (July 1-June 30) qualifies you as a participant in the CST Faculty and Staff Giving Campaign.

8. Tell me more about thank-you gifts and special prize drawings?
As a special thank you, the college will provide a CST-branded lunch cooler bag (or other gift) to everyone who makes a contribution of $50 or more. See giving form for details. Each week, the college will conduct special prize drawings. Everyone who has made a gift will be eligible to win. You can also opt out of the prize drawings via the giving form.

9. How long will the CST Faculty and Staff Giving Campaign last?
February 15 through March 31

10. What if I have a question, don’t see a fund I want to support, or need an additional form?
